Mrs. Walsh, formerly Miss Mabel Stebe, has been in the postoffice for seven years, first as assistant and for the past two years as postmistress. She has many friends among both permanent residents and summer visitors. The battle will now be on in earnest for the position left vacant by her resignation. BOWLSBY TRIAL TO BE RESUMED

THE BOWLSBY TRIAL WILL BE RESUMED TODAY IN JUSTICE GOODMAN'S COURT—FRESH EVIDENCE FORTHCOMING.

The trial of J. H. Bowlsby for the shooting of Cleve Jennings, will be resumed in Justice Goodman's court this morning at 10 o'clock. It is probable that fresh evidence as to the actual killing will be introduced. Mr. J. L. Flanagan a Portland traveling man who was a board the Alliance at the time of the shooting and was a witness of the killing has been subpoenaed. He has not hitherto given evidence, either at the inquest or at the first hearing before the Justice of the Peace. Alex Ross, a deck hand on the Alliance at the time will also testify. Besides these two, Dr. Fulton, Mrs. Bowlsby, the brothers, Harrol, (William and John), the two Mrs. Harrol will also be called. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney McCue is clear as to the duties of the Justice of the Peace, which are those, he says, of an examining magistrate and he considers that the Judge can take no other course than to hold over the prisoner to the next session of the circuit court which takes place in September.
